TARIFF CAUSED SLUMP

Chairman Topping Predicts Substantial Buying for the Future.

John A. Topping, chairman of the Republic Iron and Steel Company, in his statement to the shareholders accompany ing the annual report characterizes the recently passed tariff bill as "radical." The recession in business following the passing of the tariff bill, he says, was caused through fear that pending legis-lation might be as drastic. Notwithstanding the falling off in general business, and especially that of the steel companies, the earnings of the Re-public Iron and Steel were the second largest in the history of the company. largest in the history of the company, and the showing made in the annual report is better than for the year previous. The surplus after the payment of interest charges was equal to 12.4 per cent, on the $25,000,000 preferred stock, as compared with 8.93 per cent, earned on the same stock the year previous. ENDS LIFE ON WAY TO ASYLUM. Stedman Case Affected Connectiont Man, Who Became Insane.

GREENWICH, Conn., Feb. 13,-Just as Sheriff Finnegan was about to handcuff wich to-day to place Talbot in the State Insane Asylum, the man stepped to one side of the lockup, drew a razor from a secreted spot and killed himself with one swish of the razor. He is a son of William Talbot, town auditor, and leaves a widow and three children.

Talbot had long pondered over suicide. Five years ago he attempted to cut his throat with a razor. He was a watch-man employed on the C. W. Post estate here. Talbot was 44 years old, the same age as William A. Stedman, who killed himself last week. He had become greatly the investigation. When th interested in Coroner decided on Wednesday that Sted-man was a suicide, Talbo scared his family by his actions so that they had confined in jail and appealed to have
